SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9.

NOTES OF THE WEEK. THE KILAUEA leaves for Maui and Kona, Hawaii, n Tuesday next. STEAMERS NEXT WEEK .- The Moses Taylor from San Francisco, and the Nebraska from New Zealand, will both be due the latter part of next week. NAVAL.-The U. S. S. S. Pensacola, from San Francisco, was reported as to leave for this port on the 23d ult., and is therefore fully due. THE GOOD TEMPLARS' BALL - Don't forget the assembly on Monday evening at Buffum's Hall. We anticipate a brilliant and well conducted re-

ICE CART .- We notice in our morning walks, that the ice-cart has become an institution. The quality of ice furnished by the establishment on the Esplanade is purer and is said to last longer than the imported article

NEW SCHOONERS .- The new 80 ton schooner built by Tibbetts & Sorenson will be ready to launch by the next high tides. We learn that the Messrs. Foster, are intending soon to lay the keel of a schooner of about 140 tons.

VERY TRUE .- An exchange well remarks that one may insert a thousand excellent things in a newspaper and never hear a word of them from its readers. But let a line or two not suited to their taste creep in, by accident or otherwise, and one hears of it from every quarter.

JAPANESE ORANGES .- A curiosity may be observed on the premises of a gentleman on Fort street, being a miniature orange tree, about three feet high, growing in a tub, which has on it about a dozen large golden fruit. It is one of a lot of plants breaght from Japan about a year ago.

COMMENDABLE INDUSTRY .- We found a native today who offered to do a short errand for a dime Such a correct appreciation of the true value of small coin should be met by such a demand for the employment of the individual, as light porter, as would call into the field a crowd of competitors.

A PURVEYOR WANTED .- Since the death of the late incumbent at the Queen's Hospital, the Trustees have advertised for a proper person to fill the position. It is safe to say that they will be extremely fortunate if a person is found so well fitted freshet here on the night of the 22nd that has been ber of horses will be entered for the Hack Race.

"Oh, Squiggles?-he's on the road to the Lunatic Asylum," was the reply. "Indeed! Well, I always thought he was queernot altogether sound, you know." "No ; I don't mean that. He's gone out on that road to live."

ENTERTAINMENT IN PROSPECT .- We note the arrival from Oregon this week, of Mr. Geo. Pauncefort. who comes very highly recommended through notices which have appeared from time to time in the journals of the Pacific coast, as an actor, elocutionist, humorist, and a delineator especially of the characters of Charles Dickens. The appearance of Mr. Pauncefort on the San Francisco stage, something less than a year ago, was mentioned in very flatter-Manager of M'dme States Opera Co. ing terms by the press of that city, since when he CAR. and highly respected resident of twenty years standing, died somewhat suddenly of aneurism, in this city, on Thursday last. He arrived here early in 1851, and until recently was known by the name of Moffitt, which he changed for that of Stoney (by Royal permission) for family reasons. He may justly be considered as the pioneer of an improved system of grazing, his stock farm at Kahuku being a model in that respect. The old and barbarous system of lassos and Spanish saddles for dragging cattle about. was entirely repudiated on his ranch, and his large flocks of improved breeds were quite tame and well cared for. Perice Court .-- Monday, 4th inst, Han, a native, was arraigned for an assault and battery on a Japapese named Juba. The assult was unprovoked. and Hau was fined $10. Tuesday 5th, the case of William Hall, charged with selling intoxicating drinks or substances (beer) to natives, on the 25th ult., came up for decision. The testimony was voluminous, and in same parts of so contradictory a nature that whichever way the judgment should fall, it was evident there had been what is sometimes called "tall swearing" one side or the other. The Court, after a lengthy and thorough review of the testimony, found the accused guilty of the charge, and imposed a fine of $100-costs, $5.80. Kalili, a native, for being drunk and disturbing the peace, was warned and discharged. A large-sized gambling case was the next on trial, seven natives were arraigned for having played cards for money good deal of money appeared to have changed hands. The man who lost the $37, said he employed a person to stand behind him to whom he gave ten cents a game to bring him luck-apparently a bad speculation. The gamblers were fined $10 each and sentenced to five days imprisonment at hard labor, in addition. They have noted an appeal to Judge Kamakau. On Thursday, one Mahiai, was found guilty of gross cheat, in obtaining goods under false pretences, and fined $50. Appealed to Judge Kamakau. On Friday the 7th, ter concludes by asking us whether or no there is original John Smith, does not appear, but when the name was called in Court, the Bench, the bar, and the usual crowd of idlers pricked up their ears and elevated their eye-brows to get a good look at the bearer of so celebrated a name. ITEMS FROM KAUAL .- Our attentive correspondents at Waimea and Koloa, will please accept our thanks. We glean the following items of interest : November 21st, at Waimea, at about 3 o'clock, A. M., a fire broke ont in Akana's store and dwelling, and destroyed it. Two Chinamen occupied the house, and they saved some of the goods. About 100 bags of paddy were roasted." The Chinamen reported that the house was set on fire from the outside, but from some circumstances, there was a suspicion that the Chinamen themselves did it.

During the 22nd, 23rd and 24th, it rained almost constantly at Waimea, with the wind strong from the south. The river rose to a freshet, and the natives were paddling in canoes over the taro Our Koloa letter says : "We had the heaviest COMPOUNDING A FELONY .- A correspondent writing from Kauai, gives an account of the doings of a native policeman in the neighborhood of Koloa, that if true, shows a lamentable degree of slackness in the administration of Justice. Our correspondent says that he knows of a number of instances where felonies have been committed and the officers of the police have negotiated with the offenders for the payment to them of certain sums of money, in consideration of which they offered to by them while the sentence was pronounced. It is cases to be sure, the offense has been trivial, and the amount of money proposed for composition has been small, but the principle is the same. A few months ago a boy in Wilmington, N. C., sent a letter to the Emperor Napoleon, telling him that he was but a boy of eleven years, but that with the heart of a man he sympathized with him in the heavy misfortunes that had fallen upon him. A few days since, to the astonishment of every one, an autograph letter was received from the Emperor in reply. It thanked him for the kindly and generous sympathy that had been bestowed, and hoped that the lot in life of his little friend would fall in more quiet scenes and more penceful times than had fallen to the share of the Emperor of the French.
